to the children of the public schools of this city. Miss Ruth Bright is the instructor. This department has temporary headquarters in the Highlands but will be permanently located in the new high school building which is nearing completion.

The pupils who have been studying domestic science have given several delightful luncheons lately. Thursday they entertained six ladies. The table was attractively decorated with American Beauty roses. Several little girls whose ages were in the neighborhood of ten and twelve years, prepared a delicious five-course luncheon and served it in splendid style.

Miss Bright has accomplished a great deal in the short time this department has been established and elaborate plans are being made for next year.

Business College Celebrates Anniversary.

The Albuquerque Business College celebrated its fifth anniversary Friday and in honor of the occasion gave an entertainment at Colombo hall.

A splendid program was rendered. The first number on it was a one-act farce comedy, which was clever and exceptionally well played.

This was followed by several excellent musical numbers, a black-face vaudeville act and short talks by Prof. J. E. Goodell and Attorney J. A. Miller.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The Reihi Brothers' orchestra furnished unusually good music and dancing continued until a late hour. Punch and hot cream and cake were served.

This affair was a decided success as an entertainment and as a social gathering. There was a large crowd present; in fact, if there had been a very few more it would have been impossible to dance.

This jolly party last evening was a fitting celebration of the remarkable growth and the far-reaching influence which the Albuquerque Business College, under the direction of Prof. J. E. Goodell, has attained in the few years of its existence.

The program follows:

1. "Smith the Aviator" — Cast of Characters: Dr. Seafay ..... Ted Strong His sister, Alice ..... Ollie Binds Her friend, Guy ..... Otto Frankl Bridger ..... Vernice Bowers Smith, the insurance agent ..... Paul Hayes

in no way interfere with the work of the individual societies of which the Union is composed, but will pass up work of such a nature as is considered too large for any one society and will mean that hereafter the societies will join hands in work that is of mutual interest. They will hold one Union devotional meeting every quarter during each year.

The social on Monday evening will surpass anything of its kind that has been held in this city for some time. Special committees have been at work preparing and arranging for the social and, if reports are correct, an enjoyable evening is assured.
